Our Company

A photograph of an office environment with several people working at computers. The image is partially obscured by green semi-transparent overlays containing text. The background shows a man in a white shirt in the foreground, another man in a patterned shirt in the middle ground, and a third man in a light blue shirt in the background. They are all seated at desks with multiple monitors and laptops. A laptop in the foreground has a red and white logo that says 'IT' and 'СЕРВІС' below it.
