Teaching Foreign Languages in Ukraine and Beyond: Best Practices and Challenges

Dear Colleagues!

We invite you to participate in the international conference “Teaching foreign languages in Ukraine and beyond: best practices and challenges” hosted by the Faculty of Foreign Languages, Vasyl Stefanyk Precarpathian National University (Ivano-Frankivsk City).

The conference dates are 21-22 March 2019.

The international conference aims to discuss topical issues in foreign language teaching; foreign language teacher training specifics in the current social, economic and educational climate; conceptual foundations and practical aspects of pre-university, pre-degree and postgraduate education; Ukrainian and international experience in training foreign language specialists with a view to implementing best practices in higher education institutions.

We invite submissions addressing the following topics:

- Modernizing the structure and content of undergraduate and postgraduate education, as well as continuing professional development of foreign language teachers through competency-based learning;
- Quality foreign language education as a factor contributing to the competitiveness of a 21st century professional;

- Experience and challenges in reforming pre-university foreign language education;
- Using printed and online resources in the learning process and professional training of foreign language specialists;
- The role of international organizations in improving foreign language learning and teaching standards in Ukraine and beyond.

Participation formats: plenary, breakout session, workshop, demonstration lesson, presentation of resources.

Conference languages: Ukrainian, English, German, French.

The conference proceedings will be available on the website of the Faculty of Foreign Languages.

Articles meeting the requirements (see below) can be published in the University's journals ("Educational Space of Ukraine", <http://journals.pu.if.ua/index.php/esu/index>; "Obrii", <http://www.ippo.if.ua/index.php/2010-07-01-13-37-35/2010-07-01-13-38-38>), as well as in a special issue of the Journal of Vasyl Stefanyk Precarpathian National University" <http://journals.pu.if.ua/index.php/jpnu>.
